

Tummen upp! Engelska Öva – Skriva

Liber
Facit

How to Write Good Sentences p. 6-7

1. Words that describe things are called adjectives. When you change the adjectives in a sentence, you can change the whole meaning of the sentence, especially if you use opposites (motsatser).
2. As the sun rose – Then – sunny – lost – liberating

Förslag:

Late at night – happy – bright – sunny – very sad

Suddenly – a minute later – soft – quickly

Telling a story in the Past Tense p. 8-9

1.
 - She loves to listen to music.
 - A month ago I went to a party.
 - He saw a movie the other day.
 - We always Snapchat in the evening.
 - I thought I saw you on the bus this morning.

2. I wanted to go to the party.
I ran quickly to school.
When I looked at you, I felt happy.

3. I always wanted to go to a dog show.
I never wanted to see you again.
I often tried to get you to notice me.

More About the Past Tense p. 10

2. looked – had been – was – wanted – did – thought – spoke/talked – had thought – thought – told – had done – was – had had – was – sat – sat – listened – slept

The Beginning p. 11-13

4. Förslag:
First – then because and – but so – finally

Alone p. 19-20

1.

abandoned	utmattad
was in pain	övergiven
terrified	livrädd
trembling	orolig
sharp pain	som om något var brutet
like something was broken	hade ont
exhausted	skarp smärta
worried	chockad
shocked	darrande

Turning Point 2 p. 21-24

1.

calm	stilla
chilly	ensamt
dark	sent
late	kyligt
lonely	lugnt
moonlit	mörkt
quiet	upplyst av månskenet
still	tyst